Thanks, David. You're the only one who's responded, so I'm guessing everyone else's silence is one of stunned awe. I'm working from home today but plan to be in the office tomorrow. I'll print them out tomorrow and route them for concurrence.
I'll ask Mark who should be included in the concurrence chain. For now, I'm thinking you, Lydia, Ben, Mark and Scott McDonald.

Ed,
I think it looks good. Thanks

Hi All,
Attached is a draft letter addressed to Ergon's outside counsel, Molly Cagle. It may be more detailed than Valero's, but that would be because Ergon is in a better, if not the only, position to know and explain what happened and the cause of it all. I thought it important to include a summary of that in this draft. Please let me know what you think.
